

How should we respond when Allah is praised during Qunoot?

Question: Noble Shaykh may Allah grant you success. After the statement of the Imam (during the Dua of Qunoot):

إِنَّكَ تَقْضِي وَلَا يُقْضَى عَلَيْكَ ، وَإِنَّهُ لَا يَذِلُّ مَنْ وَالَيْتَ

Verily You decree and no one can judge You, and he is not humiliated whom You have befriended.¹

Do the people praying behind the Imam respond by saying Ameen?

Shaykh Fawzan: They should praise Allah. Say:

سُبْحَانَكَ

You are free from all imperfections (Subhanaka)

Instead of saying Ameen they say: Subhanaka (You are free from all imperfections)

Translated by Rasheed ibn Estes Barbee

¹ Translation based upon the explanation by Shaykh Uthaymeen