

Be patient upon this Minhaj if you want to drink from the Pond!

Advice from Shaykh Salih Fawzan

Shaykh Fawzan: If you want to drink from this pond (the Prophet's pond on the Day of Judgment), then be obedient to Allah and to His Messenger. As for the person who claims to be from the Ummah of Muhammad but his does not obey nor does he comply, nor does he adhere to the Minhaj of the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم; this person will not benefit from using the name Islam. Rather he will be prevented from drinking from the pond at a time when the people will be the thirstiest. And with Allah refuge is sought.

Therefore the one who wants to drink from this pond let him adhere to the Sunnah. And adhering to the Sunnah is not an easy matter; it comes with trials and ordeals. There are people who will rebuke you, harm you, and degrade you. They will say: 'This person is extreme, haughty, etc. Or perhaps they will not suffice with speech, perhaps they will kill you, or beat you, or imprison you.

But be patient if you want safety and if you want to drink from this pond. Be patient with adhering to the Sunnah of the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وسلم until you meet him at the pond.
