

You saw Shaytan in your dream; not the Prophet!

Shaykh Abdul Razzaq Al Badr

Shaykh Abdul Razzaq Al Badr: I remember when a questioner—from the ignorant people—came to one of our scholars and asked him a question.

He said: "O Shaykh, I saw the Prophet ﷺ in a dream."

The Shaykh said: "Describe to me what you saw."

He said: "I saw him as a man who was clean shaven, wearing a suit and tie."

This is how the man described him. So the Shaykh clarified to him that this was Shaytan that he saw in his dream. And I add to what the Shaykh said, by saying this Shaytan he saw was a Shaytan from Europe. We ask Allah for safety and security. How much deviance, misguidance, and deceit, has breached the people in a tremendous, severe way! Thus they were misguided due to these false, untruthful, evil dreams; the result of which is only misguiding the people and obstructing them from the straight path.

Translated by Rasheed ibn Estes Barbee